

Course Title: Outdoor Education (A)

Unit Title	Line	Unit Description
Horse Trekking	9	In this unit students will be introduced to the skills of Horse Trekking. They will participate in a three-day camping excursion, team building activities, relevant first aid skills, minimal impact studies, care of equipment, hazard awareness and incident prevention and response. There will be part day horse riding sessions that students will need to successfully complete to participate in the three-day camp. There is an extension unit available – Extended Horse Trekking.
Surfing	7	In this unit students will be introduced to the skills of Surfing. They will participate in a three-day camping excursion, team building activities, relevant first aid skills, minimal impact studies, care of equipment, hazard awareness, incident prevention and response, awareness of coastal geography and the science of wave. There will be swimming sessions that students will need to successfully complete to participate in the three-day camp. There is an extension unit available – Extended Surfing.
First Aid	7	A vital unit for students looking to spend time in the outdoors, but also extremely helpful - as part of your CV; as part of a major in this and other courses; a pre requisite for further study; in the search for employment; or simply as a valuable community service. This unit has a large practical component, including a lot of scenario work. Cost will cover all instruction, text, examination and accreditation as well as materials for scenarios.
Snorkelling	8	In this unit students will be introduced to the skills of snorkelling. They will participate in a three-day camping excursion, team building activities, snorkelling skill development, relevant first aid skills, minimal impact studies, care of equipment, hazard awareness and incident prevention and response. Students will need to display satisfactory swimming proficiency prior to the three-day camp.
Scuba Diving	9	In this unit students will be introduced to the skills of scuba diving and complete an open water diving certificate. They will participate in a three -day coast based field trip, team building activities, relevant theory and practical skills work, minimal impact studies, selection and care of equipment and safety skills. Students will need to display satisfactory swimming proficiency and complete a medical examination with a doctor prior to the three-day camp. There are extension units available – Marine Naturalist and Advanced Scuba, Extended Scuba Training and Marine Expedition.
Multi-sport Adventure	7	In this unit students will be introduced to a variety of different outdoor activities, developing personal and activity specific skills across these various activities. They will participate in; a three-day camping excursion and problem solving, team building activities, relevant first aid skills, minimal impact studies, selection, use and care of equipment, hazard awareness and

