Rationale for the Creative Response

What should I write about?	How should I start my sentences? Try using these sentence starters.
1. Where did your ideas come from? You may wish to mention character(s) or include a quote from the text.	My ideas for this creative response came from the biography by, particularly the part OR, My creative response began as a class exercise that asked us to
2. What were you aiming to communicate about the sport or sportsperson? What themes or ideas are you exploring in the creative piece?	I wanted to communicate/express
3. Explain the format (eg a sports article, a diary entry, a reflective piece) Also explain at least one aspect of the creative response.	I have written in the form of a Because this allowed me to One way I did this was to (you may wish to quote from your own writing)
4. The finish could be a comment on how well you feel you achieved your aims. Sometimes a quote from the text is effective.	In this piece I have shown just how As said, “” (page number)
